

Global Fiber Optic Communication Network

Overview

Subsea fibre optic cables are the key piece of infrastructure which propels digital communication, carrying over 95% of international data to connect continents. TeleGeography's comprehensive and regularly updated interactive map of the world's major submarine cable systems and landing stations. Visualize the growth of global connectivity. Show me range to terrestrial fiber nodes on the map?

Is the ITU building in Geneva Switzerland within 10 km of a fibre node?

Start measuring on the map to see calculations here. Analyze network nodes within a 10 km radius using. Fibre-optic Link Around the Globe (FLAG) is a 28,000-kilometre-long (17,398 mi; 15,119 nmi) fibre optic mostly- submarine communications cable that connects the United Kingdom, Japan, India, and many places in between. It offered a major leap in capacity compared to earlier electrical cables.
